TALK IS CHEAP, so is any kind of merchandise when bought at the right place. I for one do not believe in talking too much; but put my time rather to some better use. I have been in Reno since the town started, and have tried to do my best for my patrons. I do not say down with a monopoly, as there is no such a thing in my line. But what I do say is, that I have, and always will, give dollar for dollar, to which my numerous customers can testify. Thanking the public for kind patronage for the past, and soliciting the same for the future.

I am respectfully,

The State Paying Silver.
Owing to the large amount of silver that is now being received at the State Treasury, the State will, until further notice, be necessitated to pay 30 per cent. of the claims against it in that coin. An effort was made at the last session of the Legislature to pass a law that the State should transact its business on a silver basis, but the effort failed.

Forced Sale.
The entire stock in the store of J. Prescott is to be sold off regardless of cost by Chas. B. Newman, who purchased it at Sheriff's sale. The ladies should remember, and attention is directed to the advertisement setting forth this fact.

Short Crop.
The potato crop will not be over one-third as large as usual in Washoe county this year.

New Teachers.
The Board of Examiners have awarded first grade teacher's certificates to Miss Josie Wintermantel and Ora B. Kirby, and a second grade certificate to Miss Sarah H. Wilson. These were the successful applicants at the late examination.

Cows Dying.
Several cows have lately died very suddenly down on the Meadows—it is supposed from eating wild parsnips. Mrs. Thomas has lost several, Mrs. Brown a few, and two or three have died on Clark's ranch.

Virginia street was excited last evening by a couple of fights—one between two boys and the other an altercation between two men.

Harry Chapman, who shot Foley at Hot Springs last Sunday, is an ex-Renoite. He married Mrs. Fay, daughter of Mrs. Chase.
